FROM THE PRESIDENT AND CEO

Dare to Dream About Travel

By Stephanie Turner, CTC
President & CEO, Brentwood Travel

2020 has arrived. It seems during this unique numbered year, we have seen all kinds of havoc pertaining to the world, travel, and just life in general. When we're in the midst of chaos it is sometimes hard to see the future – but there is a future and it will again be bright. So, we are asking each of you to Dare to Dream about Travel with us.

Numerous clients have called us ready to go as soon as the government gives the all clear, but we know others are more hesitant. Many of you will return to those cruises, all-inclusive resorts and wonderful land tours to unique and exotic destinations, with many of the companies featured in this issue. If going back to certain destinations or modes of travel makes you uneasy – we ask you to think out of the box.

There are many wonderful venues where you, your family and friends can feel safe. Think about the many condo communities that cater to tourists in small personalized settings. Maybe you would like to rent a beautiful resort home overlooking the water or high in the mountains. Or perhaps chartering a small boat away from the crowds might be your thing. Whatever type of travel excites you, we want to encourage you to keep dreaming about travel with Brentwood Travel at your side.

Stephanie is currently dreaming about traveling to Japan, Antarctica, Paris and Israel.

You are receiving this magazine because we know you love to travel, and we want you to continue doing what you love. Talk to our wonderful Travel Consultants so we can help you plan something that makes you feel comfortable and excited. Brentwood Travel only works with the top companies in the travel industry to make sure your vacation is protected by the best of the best. So, come join us by turning the page and let's start dreaming of travel together!

RIVER CRUISING

Dreaming of Paris & the Heart of Normandy

VIKING RIVER CRUISES

Paris, France

Discover the charming wonders of France with a VIKING RIVER CRUISES sailing to Paris & the Heart of Normandy. From the must-sees to the hidden gems, you will experience the best of this country on your 8-day adventure. See more of France with an included excursion in every port with knowledgeable local guides.

Take in the beauty and history that surrounds you as you arrive in Paris, France. Explore the city on your own or join your fellow cruisers for a “welcome walk” to stretch your legs and get oriented. Board your Viking Longship for an overnight in Paris and wake up to enjoy another full day in the City of Lights. Cascade down the Seine River into La Roche Guyon and spend your morning in this quaint town. Travel to the town of Giverny and spend your afternoon exploring where Claude Monet resided from 1833 until his death in 1926. You can experience the inspiration for many of his masterpieces, such as the Japanese bridge, water lilies, wisterias, and azaleas.

Senior Travel Consultant Michelle Busse with our Viking Cruises rep, Eric Molina, while sailing with Viking River Cruises

Your next stop is in the picturesque city of Rouen, France. Explore the medieval architecture throughout the city with a walking tour. Your ship will be docked overnight,

Omaha Beach

Monet's Japanese Bridge in Giverny

giving you more time to experience the food, culture, and history of Rouen. After breakfast, begin your full-day tour to the historic beaches of Normandy. With two choices for your included excursion, you can pick whichever experience piques your interests. Choose a tour that highlights the Allied troops of World War II with stops at the small Arromanches Debarquement D-Day Museum, the Normandy American Cemetery and Memorial in Colleville-sur-Mer, and Omaha Beach. Or choose to witness memorials to two legendary Norman conquests that had far-reaching consequences for the British Commonwealth. This tour includes stops at Juno Beach, the Pegasus Museum, and more.

The journey continues as you cruise to Les Andelys, France, most famously known for Château Gaillard. Walk through and explore this historic castle's beautiful, lush grounds. Then you will find yourself returning to Paris to see more of this iconic French city. Choose your included excursion and either visit Napoleon Bonaparte's Château de Malmaison, where he spent his final days in France or take a guided walking tour of Mantes-la-Jolie and the affluent Parisian neighborhood of Saint-Germain-en-Laye. Docked overnight in Paris, this gives you plenty of time for an additional, optional tour of the Palace of Versailles or a “Paris by Night” tour to experience the city at night.

LAND VACATIONS

Kauai

Visit the breathtaking Hawaiian Islands in a way that's completely customized to you. Whether you want to relax at a luxury resort, rent a car and drive along the island's coast, say "I do!" surrounded by swaying palm trees, or even plan a pre- or post-stay around your Hawaiian island cruise, CLASSIC VACATIONS has got you covered. With destination options on all four islands, it's up to you where you decide to go!

BIG ISLAND

The island of Hawaii is the youngest and largest island in the Hawaiian chain. It is nearly twice as big as all the other Hawaiian Islands combined (hence its nickname, "Big Island"). You can travel through all but four of the world's different climate zones, ranging from Wet Tropical to Polar Tundra, a result of the elevations of the massive volcanoes Maunakea and Maunaloa.

KAUAI

Known as the "Garden Island", it's the oldest and northernmost island in the Hawaiian chain draped in emerald valleys, mountains, cliffs and waterfalls. Some parts of Kauai are only accessible by air or sea, revealing dramatic beauty. Kayak the Wailua River, snorkel on Poipu Beach, hike the trails of Kokee State Park, or go zip lining above Kauai's valleys.

Diamond Head State Monument - Oahu

Drive the Road to Hana in Maui

MAUI

Maui, or "The Valley Isle", is beloved for its world-famous beaches, the sacred Iao Valley, views of migrating humpback whales in the winter, farm-to-table cuisine and the incredible sunrise and sunset from Haleakala. Voted "Best Island in the U.S." by Conde Nast Traveler for more than 20 years, there is a reason this island must be on your list. Put the top down in your car and drive the Road to Hana, stop by the Haleakala Crater or sit down for a tasting at Maui Brewing Company.

OAHU

Often called "The Gathering Place", Oahu is home to the majority of Hawaii's population that's made up of bustling city life to laid-back surf towns. On this island is where you can explore the famous Pearl Harbor National Museum, climb Diamond Head State Monument and observe rare plants at Waimea Valley.

Over the last year OCEANIA CRUISES has gone through a complete makeover to bring you the most incredible sailing experience. With the launch of OceaniaNEXT, they took their spectacular fleet and enhanced gathering spaces, staterooms and amenities. But that wasn't all that changed. WHITTIER, ALASKA

The small town of Whittier is the gateway to beautiful Prince William Sound as well as Anchorage, which is only 60 miles away. Established as a secret military outpost during WWII, Whittier attracts visitors for its unspoiled glaciers and wilderness. A picturesque train journey to Anchorage along the Alaska Railroad is another fantastic diversion with awe-inspiring views.

PANAMA CITY, PANAMA

From the vestiges of the original settlement to the modern skyscrapers, experience the history and culture of one of the Pacific Coast's oldest inhabited European settlements.

Mystery Island, Vanuatu

Casco Viejo - Panama City, Panama

After exploring the bustling local markets in search of fresh fish or artisan handicrafts, admire the restored Spanish Colonial architecture in Casco Viejo. Or you can head to the Miraflores Locks and watch one of the modern world's most heroic feats of engineering in action.

MYSTERY ISLAND, VANUATU

A tiny, uninhabited island off the coast of Vanuatu's Aneityum island, Mystery Island is a remote paradise of white sand beaches, swaying palms and aquamarine waters. Since the surrounding sea is a protected marine sanctuary, snorkelers will be enchanted by views of colorful marine life and pristine coral reefs. Aneityum residents will likely set up market stalls when you visit so you'll be able to browse for local goods.

ÎLES DES SAINTES, GUADELOUPE

Comprising of eight small islands, Îles des Saintes is a place where you can be happy doing absolutely nothing. Whether your agenda consists of seeing a specific sight like Fort Napoléon, getting active on a hike, or taking a short stroll to a café, this laid-back locale has got you covered.

PORT ARTHUR (TASMANIA), AUSTRALIA

Port Arthur is home to one of the most famous penal colonies of the UNESCO-listed Australian Convict Sites. In stark contrast, the spectacular coastal landscapes of the Tasman Peninsula tower nearly 1,000 feet above white sand beaches and the Tasman Sea, with breathtaking waterfalls cascading down its cliff sides.

These dazzling ports of call and more are waiting for you to come explore. To get started, contact Brentwood Travel to book your next Tropics & Exotics cruise with OCEANIA CRUISES!
