With 2019 just around the corner it is NOT too soon to plan your vacation for next year! The travel landscape is changing. Though Mexico, Britain, France, Italy and river cruises are still hot, there are other destinations and travel types that are becoming more popular.

High on the list is adventure travel. Destinations like Antarctica and the Galapagos are surging in popularity. Travelers want to have that experience with nature. They love the idea of getting in a zodiac to see the penguins up close at the South Pole. Perhaps they will encounter a whale or sea lion with very few humans around, or feel great exhilaration looking at the great ice formations – like an entire museum of colossal and magical ice forms defying description.

Everyone who visits the Galapagos falls in love with these islands that are a microcosm of the earth before there were animals. Here you can walk among the blue footed boobies, albatross, a variety of iguanas and sea lions just to name a few creatures. Each season brings a whole change in the environment, so many people will visit more than once. Ecuador has done a fantastic job preserving this jewel located on the equator.

Iceland is another up-and-coming destination. This year it is so popular that it is important to plan this trip well in advance. People go in both summer, when it is warmer, and winter when the Northern Lights can more easily be seen. The people are friendly, and the scenery is breathtaking.

There are many more fantastic adventure-style trips with varying price ranges to suit a variety of travelers. At Brentwood Travel we have the experts who can help you plan that unique journey. Since 1957 we have experienced the world.

When your ship docks and you step onto the island you will never want to leave, as this island has it all.

Want to catch some waves without being in saltwater? Then get ready to be swept away in the Caribbean's largest wave pool with wave sizes for all ages at Thrill Waterpark. After playing in the wave pool, head over to the Caribbean's largest freshwater pool at Oasis Lagoon. Here you can cool off in the water, lounge at a private cabana, tan in a lounge chair or sip on refreshing cocktails. Looking for something more exclusive than the pool area? Then head over to the Coco Beach Club and reserve your spot at the first overwater cabanas in the Bahamas, each complete with a waterslide into the ocean!

"What do you think about when you picture a great vacation that will check off all the boxes on your list as well as the list made up by the whole family? Royal Caribbean thought up that list and has been perfecting it ever since they first set sail. The service, staterooms, and shows are top-notch. The islands are exotic and adventurous. The ships are spectacular. I thoroughly enjoyed my experience with Royal Caribbean

Brentwood Travel's Vice-President and General Manager, Susan Hakenjos, traveled on Nieuw Statendam's sister ship, Nieuw Koningsdam, in 2017 and she has given some insight of what to expect from the new ship: "Nieuw Koningsdam cabins and public areas feel like a high-end hotel, the entertainment is slick and polished, and the food is some of the finest we've tasted onboard a cruise ship. The ship is music-themed throughout, and you'll spot prints, paintings and sculptures of pop stars, musicians and instruments almost everywhere you turn."

CRUISE LINE®

Clients Karen and Julie before boarding the inaugural sailing of Norwegian Bliss

In the spring of 2018, NORWEGIAN CRUISE LINE released the newest ship in their fleet, Norwegian Bliss. This state-of-the-art ship that holds over 4,000 passengers had its inaugural sailing out of Southampton and two of our valued Brentwood Travel clients, Karen and Julie, were lucky enough to sail on board with accommodations in the ultra-luxurious Haven Suite. Upon their return we asked them to share their experience with us in Travel World to show you why you should sail on Norwegian Bliss, too!

BT: What was your itinerary and how long was your cruise?

K&J: It was a transatlantic from Southampton to New York for a 12-day boat ride April 28th through May 3rd.

BT: What were your first thoughts about Norwegian Bliss?

K&J: Wow, how breathtaking, very modern and trendy. The ship has a really good layout.

BT: How does Norwegian Bliss compare to other cruise ships you've sailed on?

K&J: There is no comparison. This ship is our favorite. The large windows and up-front observation deck is like no other and the deck below is where the buffet is located, and it has the same viewing windows. It is a great ship for viewing all destinations. The activities are for all ages. The ship has it all... shows, music, casino, racetrack, laser tag, pool, gym, sauna – and a great variety of dining options. Also, the internet is super fast.

BT: What were the highlights on Norwegian Bliss that you enjoyed most?

K&J:

1. The Haven. Being a guest in The Haven, with its 5-star service and pampering, is the best from any cruise line.

2. The new restaurant “Q Texas Smokehouse” was our favorite – great atmosphere and service with top-of-the-line BBQ.

BT: Do you plan to sail on Norwegian Bliss again?

K&J: Yes!

Norwegian Bliss has everything you could possibly imagine that will make your cruise truly unforgettable – 16 bars and lounges for specialty drinks, cigars and spectacular views; 13 specialty dining venues from Jimmy Buffett's Margaritaville to Starbucks; exciting nighttime entertainment including the Broadway spectacular Jersey Boys; on board activities for the entire family to enjoy from the Aqua Park on the lido deck to special clubs for kids, tweens and teens; and of course don't forget about taking some time for yourself at the Mandara Spa.

In 2019, PRINCESS CRUISES will celebrate 50 years in Alaska after spending half a century developing their legacy in this great land. In recognition of this incredible milestone, here are five reasons Princess Cruises is a perfect choice to take you on an unforgettable journey to Alaska.

#1 One of the Best Cruise Lines in Alaska

Year after year Princess Cruises has been named a top cruise line in Alaska. They take more people to the Great Land than any other cruise line. Princess Cruises offers a variety of itineraries from 7 to 12 days that visit frontier towns and spectacular glaciers. Their popular Voyage of the Glaciers cruise can also be combined with a land tour. This cruise tour includes scenic rail service and 3 to 8 nights at Princess Wilderness Lodges – the best way to see Alaska!

From Cook my Catch, a Meet and Greet with Libby Roddle (the first female Iditarod champion) and Puppies in the Piazza, you will come back with a richer understanding of Alaska.

#4 Fresh Alaska Seafood

Alaska is famous for its seafood and you'll be able to try some of the very freshest on board. Savor dishes in their dining rooms or specialties served on deck from local eateries like crab cakes from Tracy's King Crab Shack in Juneau and fish tacos from The Alaska Fish House in Ketchikan.

#5 Exciting Excursions

Experience the best of gold rush-era ports like Juneau, Skagway and Ketchikan. Also, the popular Animal Planet™ Recommended and Exclusive excursions offer the chance to see whales, bears and moose. Other exciting activities include river rafting or a thrilling sled-dog ride on a glacier.

"My parents and I embarked on our first Alaskan cruise with Princess Cruises in May 2016," recalls Travel Consultant Emily Medina. "We boarded Crown Princess to enjoy a week of adventure while exploring the Alaskan Inside Passage. We enjoyed the food and activities, especially the Magic To Do Broadway show. We were really glad that we had a balcony from which to enjoy the fabulous views while sailing through beautiful Alaska!"

When cruising with VIKING OCEAN CRUISES, you should expect a well-designed journey that brings you closer to the cultures of the world. As the small ship experts, Viking takes you close to the heart of destinations on vessels with just 930 guests and longer times to explore in port. You will experience firsthand the Viking Ocean difference when cruising through Northern Europe, the birthplace of Viking Cruises.

Client Martie F. in Kinderdijk, Netherlands with Viking Cruises

The Nordic heritage of Viking brings breadth and diversity to their Scandinavia itineraries. The 15-day “Viking Homelands” voyage sails the Baltic Sea and begins in Stockholm with stops in eight countries including Finland, Russia, Poland, and Norway. You will be able to explore in depth with longer port calls, overnight stays and the long daylight hours of the midnight sun.

Enjoy an overnight in St. Petersburg, Russia where you can choose to go behind the scenes of the Hermitage or enjoy a ballet performance.

The 15-day “Viking Homelands” voyage sails the Baltic Sea and begins in Stockholm with stops in eight countries including Finland, Russia, Poland, and Norway.

In Eidfjord, Norway you will marvel at sweeping mountains and dramatic waterfalls, which is also the natural domain for wild reindeer. And in Gdansk, Poland admire polished amber while sipping on gold-flecked Goldwasser – a liqueur dating to the 16th century. During the entire voyage, you will witness breathtaking scenery from your ship as she glides through majestic Norwegian fjords.

Brentwood Travel client Martha F. just enjoyed a Viking cruise in May 2018 for an extended trip through Europe. “From the moment we stepped out of the taxi and arrived at our ship, the staff was there to assist in any way. The ship was always clean and all in order and the crew was ready to help and always pleasant. And this level of excellent service was consistent during the entire voyage.”

Each stateroom is open and airy, with a beautifully streamlined Scandinavian design and sweeping views of your destination. Choose from five stateroom categories, all with private verandas and premium amenities.

More days mean more to discover with extension packages you can add before or after your Viking cruise. The “Oslo & Scenic Train” package will give you an additional two nights Travel Consultant Janine Cartier actually worked for Regent as a dancer on board and she received the same treatment each guest receives. "I remember the word 'no' not being in the crew members' vocabulary. You liked a dessert from a few nights back? Let the concierge or social staff know and you may find it waiting in your room for you or brought to your table at dinner. The sommeliers in the restaurants on board are top class. They ask you what you have ordered for

Your holiday adventure will take you to some of the best Christmas Markets in Europe. Get in the holiday spirit by taking a dip into Budapest's historic Lukács Thermal Bath and then a night out ice skating while sipping on spiced punch to keep yourself warm and merry.

While in Passau you may choose to engage in some good ol' Eisstockschiessen. What's that? It's Bavarian curling, a celebrated Austrian pastime. But you won't just watch: You'll step out on the ice to participate – and the locals don't mess around.

Cathy Robinson, Group Travel Director, felt very festive during a Holiday Market cruise with Uniworld in December 2015. Cathy recalls, "If your ideal vacation includes a glass of local beer and an Instagram-worthy meal, you've found it on a Uniworld cruise.

Uniworld ships feature farm-to-table cuisine, often inspired by the towns and villages you visit. I recommend trying Glühwein – a local favorite. Nothing is better than relaxing with a locally crafted beer or a great local wine after spending the day exploring markets for unique holiday gifts, sampling the local fare, and taking in the sights and sounds of the holidays!"

U BY UNIWORLD is a perfect choice for any traveler looking for an activity-packed and culturally immersive travel experience. 'Tis the season to contact Brentwood Travel and indulge in some holiday cheer during your next travel adventure.

"I traveled to Paris with Monograms in 2017 with a day trip to London, and Monograms was the perfect choice for me," said Marketing Associate Missi Wilson. "My husband and I are independent travelers and Monograms gave us the confidence we needed while traveling abroad for the first time. We had transfers to and from the airport, a half-day of guided tours to give us a feel for the city, and our local host did an amazing job teaching us how to use the Metro and telling us what to expect/do during our weeklong journey. Monograms made our trip truly stress free!"

Aside from the Monograms YourWay five key cities, Monograms can also take you to some exciting exotic destinations as well. Explore Africa's National Parks in your own Jeep for game drives with stays in luxury tented camps; head to Oceania's islands of Australia, New Zealand or Fiji for the perfect honeymoon getaway; or, in South and Central America, cruise the Galapagos Islands, visit Machu Picchu with a stay in Cusco and two entries to the ruins or Iguassu Falls, or stay at the exclusive Belmond Hotel. This is the only hotel inside the park that gives you extra time to explore before and after the falls are closed to the public.

Cancun All-Inclusive Vacations - Built for FUN!

Dreams Sands Cancun

Whether you're looking to relax and escape the stress of everyday life or to spice things up, Cancun has something to offer for every type of vacationer. It's also home to what we think are some of the most pristine beaches in the world, and some of the most thrilling underwater adventures and after-hours nightlife in all of Mexico. All-inclusive Cancun resorts with FUNJET VACATIONS allows you to experience the best Cancun has to offer.

World's Best Beaches

Cancun has some of the softest, whitest, cleanest beaches on the entire planet. There's a reason most people stay on the beach all day, only to head into town when the sun goes down.

Adventures at Sea

No doubt there's a lot to do on land in Cancun, but when was the last time you scuba dived through a museum? Now's your chance with MUSA ("Underwater Museum of Art" in Spanish). Over 470 statues comprise the underwater sculpture garden, along with hundreds of fish and other sea life that rely on the statues for shelter. But if inanimate objects aren't exciting enough for you, take a swim with whale sharks!

Fun for the Whole Family

Cancun isn't just a partygoer's paradise. There's plenty of sights, sounds, and activities for the entire family. Most hotels and resorts have water parks and kids clubs, so the little ones can party in their own right while parents or grandparents can relax on the beach or poolside. And Cancun's location makes it easy to venture out to the ruins of Tulum in nearby Riviera Maya.

Shopping & Restaurants

With the welcoming of dozens of boutique stores and an outdoor mall in recent years, Cancun has become one of the premier destinations for those looking to indulge themselves in high-end shopping or unique dining experiences. Be sure to try a hearty steak at Harry's or a gourmet meal at La Casa Del Chef (yes, it's a restaurant inside the chef's own home!).

Executive Vice-President Stacey Acree traveled to Barceló Maya Palace with Funjet Vacations and she loved everything about the resort. "This is the ideal setting for active travelers, spa enthusiasts and families seeking an unforgettable all-inclusive vacation, with exquisite restaurants, entertaining
