THE PINNACLE OF LUXURY

By Stephanie Turner, CTC – President, Brentwood Travel

I recently spent an amazing week as one of the first passengers on the most luxurious ship in the world – Regent's Seven Seas Explorer. This inaugural Mediterranean cruise was special, memorable and definitely an elegant experience.

Explorer has exquisite appointments everywhere you look. Upon boarding, you enter a lovely marble atrium with two beautifully curved stairways leading to the deck above. This elegant centrum has the reception desk, destinations area plus the beautiful Explorer's Lounge, where you can talk, dance and listen to a trio entertaining you in the evening. There are also beautiful shops filled with a myriad of goodies.

Every stateroom is a suite – whether larger or smaller, they're what every traveler dreams of. The spacious bathrooms have toiletries designed for men and for women, so each guest gets their own specialized product. The shower had jets on each side, an overhead rain shower and a European shower. Many suites have a separate tub and shower. Our suite had butler service, and Chris took care of so many things for us.

The exquisite main dining room, Compass Rose, offers many menu choices, including a changing variety of entrées and the Canyon Ranch Healthy choices. We just loved dining in Pacific Rim, with Pan Asian cuisine and a very Eastern decor. We also enjoyed the Italian fare in Seti Mar. The French restaurant and the steakhouse got rave reviews too. La Veranda was wonderful for breakfast and lunch, but breakfast served in our suite on several mornings was fabulous. The room service was impeccable.

On Regent, everything is included in the price: luxury accommodations, all dining, alcoholic and non-alcoholic beverages, 24-hour full-room service (even caviar), shore excursions, airfare (often including business class fares), plus fun entertainment, cozy or lively bars and lounges, and an amazing fitness center with complimentary classes. In many ports there is shuttle service taking you to and from the center of town.

I'd love to tell you more about this remarkable ship or her three sisters, so please give me a call. It's a very special experience. You deserve the very best.

THE ALLURE OF NORTHERN EUROPE

It's easy to fall for the allure of Northern Europe, from Russia to Scandinavia. Some of the world's most beautiful and historic cities are found on a Baltic cruise.

Entering the harbor of Copenhagen, Denmark you are welcomed by the delightful sights of the royal Amalienborg Palace and the half-timbered houses that line the canal. With quaint cottages, tiny hamlets, castles and ancient forts, marked by a landscape that is lush and lovely, Denmark is truly a fabled land.

Helsinki, Finland's capital and cultural center, was founded in the 1500s and built on a peninsula surrounded by hundreds of islands. This city is a stunning example of modern architecture and design.

Tallin, Estonia is not as well known, but just as interesting. Its walled Old Town is an enthralling hodgepodge of medieval streets and spires. Cobblestone ways are lined with cafes and shops.

Oslo, Norway has something for everyone. If you're a sports buff, you'll enjoy a visit to Holmenkollen, the site of the 1952 Olympic ski jumping. Inside the ski jump is a Ski Museum, the oldest of its kind in the world, presenting over 4,000 years of skiing history. If you're more into artistic experiences, make sure you see "The Scream" by Edvard Munch at the National Gallery.

St. Petersburg is the centerpiece of a Baltic cruise, and most ships spend at least two days there. It is one of the world's most beautiful cities, the cultural soul of Russia, home to priceless art, poets, musicians and composers. You'll be awestruck by your visit to the Hermitage Museum, home to over three million artworks, including paintings by Da Vinci and Rembrandt. At Peterhof Palace, keep an eye out for the Grand Cascade fountain that features Samson prying open a lion's jaws.

PRINCESS CRUISES brings you the most popular destinations and the less-frequented ports throughout Northern Europe and the Baltic, as well nearly all other parts of the world. Beautiful ships, delicious cuisine,

AN 'INSIGHT' INTO ITALY

INSIGHT VACATIONS offers a superb collection of journeys that give you the chance to discover new destinations and cultures, experience history firsthand and better appreciate the world around us. One such journey is the very popular "Best of Italy" itinerary.

This amazing tour includes all of Italy's must-see destinations and highlights in one exciting 11-day journey. Your journey begins in Rome, the "Eternal City," where you'll spend two nights. Thanks to Insight, you enjoy a VIP fast-track entrance into the Vatican Museums and a special private viewing of the Bramante Staircase before visiting the Sistine Chapel.

Next, your travels will take you through the glorious Tuscan countryside to Florence, your home for the next two nights. A highlight is a visit to the Academy Gallery to study Michelangelo's Statue of David. Your Florence experience includes shopping for beautiful leather goods and sampling the fine Florentine cuisine accompanied by Chianti wine.

The famous Leaning Tower in Pisa...Assisi, one of Italy's most beautiful mountain towns...the picturesque resort of Sorrento... the Isle of Capri... Venice's St. Mark's Square and the Basilica...the gondola rides through the romantic canals: these are just some of the iconic sights of Italy included in your journey. Imagine the memories – and photos – you'll bring back. We highly recommend that you choose to visit Pompeii, the Roman town literally frozen in time when it was covered by layers of ash from the eruption of Mount Vesuvius in AD79. It's quite awesome.

Now, you're probably ready for this perfect Italy experience with a touch of "la dolce vita," so take a look at the advantages of an INSIGHT VACATIONS tour. Centrally located hotels for easy sightseeing. VIP access to the popular attractions...leave the long lines to the other folks. Local guides who know the history and traditions of each

CRUISING THE RHINE

The Rhine River flows through six countries – Switzerland, Liechtenstein, Austria, Germany, France and the Netherlands. Perhaps the most popular Rhine River cruise is one called “Romantic Rhine,” sailing between Amsterdam and Basel, Switzerland.

Amsterdam is a city of cyclists, lovely tree-lined canals, offbeat shops and cafes, and fabulous museums and art galleries. Its most famous sites include Anne Frank's House, the Rijksmuseum, the Van Gogh Museum and the Stedelijk Museum, but this great city has more than 50 museums in all and offers many more unusual options. The best way to see Amsterdam is by canal boat, cruising through the elegant grachten (canals) lined with stately homes. Amsterdam has so much to offer that we suggest a pre- or post-cruise stay to more fully explore the city.

In Strasbourg, you see the marriage of French and German culture with cobbled streets, timbered medieval houses and the gorgeous canal-laced Petite France at the heart of its Old Town. The Cathedrale de Notre Dame, dating from AD 1190, is Europe's tallest medieval building. The enormous six-towered Cathedral of St. Martin, in Mainz, Germany is an absolute must-see. Nearby is the Gutenberg Museum, which contains the famous 15th-century Gutenberg Bible.

You'll delight in excursions to Germany's Black Forest, and to Heidelberg with its famous storybook Heidelberg Castle. Have fun seeing the famed Great Vat, the “world's largest wine barrel,” nearly 23' high, 28' wide, and holding over 58,000 gallons of wine!

In Rudesheim, definitely visit Siegfried's Mechanical Musical Instrument Museum...we promise you'll be enchanted. Cologne is known for its soaring twin-steepled gothic cathedral, a UNESCO World Heritage Site. Old Town abounds with cafes, shops and taverns where you can enjoy one of many local beers. Then head off to the fabulous chocolate museum to taste another of the city's specialties.

There's no question that a journey along the Rhine River gives you the chance to explore the rich culture, history and architecture of Europe. And, there's no question that AVALON WATERWAYS has the perfect way to experience it on their eight-day “Romantic Rhine” cruise. Call us at Brentwood Travel to learn about the Avalon difference on the Rhine or the other rivers of Europe, Asia or South America.

SPECTACULAR ASIA

What could be better than journeying to the other side of the world, while still enjoying the fun, freestyle vacation that only NORWEGIAN CRUISE LINE can offer? If Asia is on your to-do list, this is a great way to hit all the highlights (and only unpack once).

Discover the diverse past of Singapore – from its old Chinese quarter and Hindu temples to its modern skyscrapers. Would you choose to see the town aboard a short cruise along the Singapore River, or from atop your perch in a pedicab as you ride through town?

Experience the natural beauty of Thailand. Visit the sandy beaches of the island of Ko Samui, then venture inland to find cascading waterfalls and a plantation where the monkeys harvest coconuts. Head into town to shop for Thai silk and other handicrafts, and don't leave without sampling the spicy local fare.

Visit the golden temples and palaces of Bangkok. Remember the story of Anna and the King of Siam? The Royal Palace, a massive complex of intricate buildings, was the setting of this true story and is still used by the royal family today.

Hold on as your rickshaw driver whisks you past pagodas, colonial architecture and vibrant markets when touring Ho Chi Minh City. In contrast, watch for the countryside of rice paddies and small villages that line the Mekong. Get a taste of the local cuisine – a fusion of Asian spices with French style.

In modern Hong Kong, many ancient traditions still exist. It's worth a trip up to Victoria Peak, the highest point in the city, to see the best views of the city. Head over to Hollywood Road to find the Man Mo Temple, built as a tribute to the Gods of Literature (Man) and of War (Mo).

Visit Asia on Norwegian Star, with Freestyle do-it-your-way cruising. She features 11 restaurants with a variety of

THE WILDER SIDE OF PARADISE

Heading to the beach on your next vacation? Ready to mix in some adventure with your relaxation? Look no further than Riviera Maya. With an average of 240 days of sunshine a year and so much to do, it's no wonder this is such a popular destination.

Venture out and see the natural beauty of Mexico. Xcaret is a natural park with tons to offer. Swim through an underground river, hike through the middle of the jungle and explore mysterious caves. Get up-close with the wildlife inhabiting the park, such as jaguars, flamingos, giant turtles and exotic birds.

Looking for a little more adrenaline on your vacation? Xplor Park offers six different activities to get your blood pumping! Try zip lining – either up in the trees in a conventional harness, or while sitting in a hammock and being shot down into the water for a big splash! Get muddy while driving an amphibious vehicle along rocky jungle paths, bridges and caves. Go spelunking and discover the amazing stalactites as you travel 400 meters underground.

Mexico is more than just sun and sand – it also has so much rich history to explore. Tulum, an ancient Mayan fortress, is one of the few archeological sites in Mexico built near a beach. It is perched on the edge of a cliff overlooking the clear blue Caribbean water. Take your swimsuit because you can swim and sunbathe on the beach below.

Chichen Itza, a UNESCO World Heritage Site, is one of the New Seven Wonders of the World. Dominated by a massive step pyramid known as El Castillo, these Mayan ruins teach us much about how its ancient residents lived.

Be sure to look for the wonders hiding just beyond the beach. Riviera Maya is Mexico's top destination for snorkeling, and it's a fun way to explore giant coral reef systems and beautiful tropical fish.

DISTINCTLY DIFFERENT CARIBBEAN CRUISES

For a Caribbean cruise that's anything but ordinary, you should get to know OCEANIA CRUISES. Recognized for outstanding value in upscale cruising that blends gracious elegance and casual living, Oceania is quite extraordinary!

Casual Elegance – While decidedly luxurious, Oceania's 1,250-passenger Riviera has a relaxed and unpretentious ambiance similar to a private country club. Leave those tuxedos and evening gowns at home...nothing stuffy or formal about these ships!

Impeccable Service – Oceania takes great pride in its professionally trained European staff, anticipating your every whim and desire. With a guest-to-staff ratio of about 1.6 to 1, you can be assured of exceptional service throughout your voyage.

Extraordinary Cuisine – Experience the finest cuisine in a wide variety of distinctive gourmet restaurants, at no additional charge! Legendary chef Jacques Pépin, Executive Culinary Director of Oceania Cruises, has created a collection of spectacular 5-star menus. In addition to his signature Jacques restaurant, there's Polo Grill steakhouse, Tosca featuring Tuscan fare, Asian-style Red Ginger, and still more options. Oceania has an open seating policy that lets you decide when, where and with whom you wish to dine.

Comfort and Pampering – Feel like royalty in your stateroom or suite with a Prestige Tranquility Bed, marble-accented bathroom with Bulgari toiletries and twice-daily maid service. Suites and penthouses feature 24-hour butler service. Indulge in pampering beyond your wildest dreams at the Canyon Ranch Spa.

Distinctive Experiences – For a fuller destination experience, Oceania's port-intensive itineraries feature more extended evening and overnight port stays. In the Culinary Center, master chefs provide instruction in a teaching kitchen with individual cooking stations. The focus is on regional specialties, so you might learn to make Caribbean-spiced chicken or Island Rum Cake!

Value – On an Oceania cruise, there's never an additional charge for specialty restaurants or 24-hour room service, and unlimited soft drinks, bottled water, and specialty coffees are always FREE. There's even FREE shuttle service from ship to city center in many ports! Concierge level and Suite guests receive FREE unlimited access to Canyon Ranch SpaClub® private Spa Terrace.

You can see that with OCEANIA CRUISES, a Caribbean voyage is truly special. Call Brentwood Travel today to make your plans for 2016 or 2017.

PARADISE FOUND

Seeking a serene and calm place for a vacation – a place to relax, enjoy natural beauty and have fun while taking a break from daily pressures – is sometimes difficult. We decided to “think out of the box” and came up with a wonderful idea for you... a STAR CLIPPERS sailing cruise in the islands of Indonesia. Read on, and you’ll see why.

Your cruise will begin in Bali, Island of the Gods. Just the mere mention of this island evokes thoughts of a paradise. It's more than just a place; it's a tropical state of mind. Surprisingly, Bali is also known for its arts, including sculpture, modern dance and music.

You'll marvel at Komodo National Park on Komodo Island, a World Heritage Site dedicated to providing a refuge for several endangered species, including the Komodo Dragon (actually a large lizard). The park includes more than 1,000 species of fish, 260 species of reef-building coral, and 70 species of sponges, plus sharks, manta rays, whales, dolphins, and sea turtles. Then spend the afternoon on Pink Beach, where small grains of red coral in the shallow waters mix with the sand to produce the pink effect.

Sail on to the three idyllic Gilli Islands where the sand is powdery white, the water a clear turquoise and the sunsets spectacular. If you're not into diving, try a glass bottom boat trip around the islands to see all types of marine life. Lombok is home to the largest Irish bar on the smallest island in the world (surprise!).

What better way is there to visit this sun-drenched, culture-rich tropical destination than on a STAR CLIPPERS tall ship mega-yacht? This is perfect for luxury-loving travelers looking for a casual atmosphere with no rigid schedules. International cuisine is complemented by fine wines. The ships are complete with swimming pools and a convenient marina platform that lowers from

LUXURY IS IN THE DETAILS

Wondering what's new at Royal Caribbean? You know, they've always got something new and innovative! Now, ROYAL CARIBBEAN CRUISE LINE is shaking things up with their Royal Suite Class accommodations on all Oasis and Quantum class ships. Three tiers of suites offer all of the comfort, style and amenities that can be found in the finest hotels. Of course, this is all in addition to the other amazing facilities and programs found throughout the ship.

All Royal Suite Class guests enjoy exclusive access to the Coastal Kitchen, which fuses Mediterranean cuisine with the bounty of California, and offers an extensive selection of wines from Napa and Tuscany. A dedicated concierge is available to assist with restaurant and show reservations. Enjoy plush lounge chairs built for two and refreshments served from a private bar on the exclusive sun deck reserved for Royal Suite guests.

Star Class Suites feature Nespresso coffee makers, Frette linens, L'Occitane toiletries, complimentary mini-bar and spa bathrobes for use onboard. Plus, you receive complimentary dining in specialty restaurants, VOOM high-speed Internet, complimentary fitness classes and seven-day Spa Thermal Room access, complimentary in-suite movies, and exclusive access to the Suites Beach on Royal Caribbean's private islands.

Star Class guests enjoy the round-the-clock services of a Royal Genie personal assistant to assure you an exclusive one-of-a-kind experience. He will arrange access to private shore excursions, VIP seating, and signature activities before they open to anyone else. Skip the lines with expedited boarding and departure. PERFECT FOR NEW CRUISERS

What if you are looking for a unique vacation experience that blends entertainment and adventure with comfort and convenience? And, what if you've never taken a cruise, but think now is the time?

Answer: A Disney cruise!

Why? Because there is truly something for everyone on a Disney cruise – from relaxing "me" time for the adults to imaginative fun for the kids and exciting family time for all. Every voyage includes the attention to detail and world-class hospitality that only Disney can provide.

©Disney

There's a variety of activities at themed onboard venues designed to inspire and delight every member of the family. Enjoy original Broadway-quality Disney musicals, special moments with Disney Characters, first-run Disney movies, uniquely themed celebrations on deck, a fireworks spectacular at sea and more!

You'll experience diverse menus, "rotating" through three uniquely themed, elegant restaurants with the same wait staff to anticipate your needs and personal tastes. Enjoy expertly prepared dishes from filet mignon and lobster to other culinary delights from around the world. Options range from upscale table service and casual buffets to poolside dining, snacks and 24-hour room service – all included in the cruise fare.

Most Disney Bahamian and Caribbean cruises include a stop at Castaway Cay, their exclusive private island paradise. Your ship docks right at the island, so you just walk off to beautiful white sand beaches: Castaway Family beach, Serenity Bay beach for adults 18 and over, and a Teen beach for those "too cool" to hang out with parents.

Don't think for a minute that Disney cruises are just for those traveling with kids. There are so many places onboard for grownups to escape. These range from the adults-only pool and sun deck to the fitness center. At night you'll have a great time at a pub that shows live sporting events, the Champagne lounge, a bar with live music, and a nightclub with a DJ and dancing – that becomes adults-only after 9:00 p.m.

If you haven't experienced a cruise, isn't it time? Let Brentwood Travel show you more about why your first-time cruise (or second, third and beyond) should be with DISNEY CRUISE LINE.

HAPPILY EVER AFTER! SAILING FROM PORT CANAVERAL, FLORIDA

Disney Cruise Line is sailing year-round out of Port Canaveral, conveniently located near Walt Disney World® Resort. On board, discover magic for every member of your crew. You can choose an enchanting Bahamian or Caribbean getaway—with a stop at Disney Castaway Cay, a private island paradise.

FOR A CHANGE, CRUISE PORTUGAL & SPAIN

Wine connoisseurs...listen up – this one’s for you! More and more travelers are discovering the beauty and charm of Spain and Portugal. A river cruise through the Douro Valley – famous for its port wine – is perfect to combine with your love of the grape!

Your journey begins with three days of exploration in Lisbon. A guided city tour takes you to highlights such as Belém Tower, the hills of the Alfama district and Rossio plaza, and then you’ll have a day at leisure to explore Lisbon.

Next, travel through the beautiful countryside from Lisbon to Porto to begin your cruise. Along the way, you’ll stop in Coimbra to see one of the oldest universities in Europe, along with its splendid 18th-century library.

In Régua, a visit to the Douro Museum will educate you about the natural, historical and cultural story of the Douro Valley and its famous wines. Take a guided tour through the 12th-century walled village of Castelo Rodrigo with its spectacular views in all directions.

Crossing in Spain, you’ll ride from the port of Vega de Terrón to Salamanca, a UNESCO World Heritage Site, to see the University buildings, the Salamanca Cathedral and the House of Shells. The day ends with a fun evening at a traditional flamenco show.

A real treat awaits you in Pinhão, with a visit to the prestigious port wine estate of Quinta do Seixo. After a tour of its state-of-the-art facility, sample some of their famous Sandeman Port.

Your cruise takes you back to Porto, where you’ll have sightseeing options such as a guided city tour of preserved historic buildings and impressive architecture, an exclusive “Do as the Locals Do” walking tour, a city tour of Portugal’s first capital, Guimarães, and a chance to explore Porto’s UNESCO-designated Ribeira district on foot. Of course, you won’t leave without the chance to do a

Each year many wonderful events and celebrations take place all over the globe. Why not turn one of these exciting world events into an exhilarating vacation?

CELEBRITY CRUISES has a collection of Signature Event Sailings that do just that. While you’re being indulged onboard an awesome Celebrity ship, you’ll be part of an unforgettable once-in-a-lifetime experience.

Each Signature Event Sailing offers unique shore excursions that highlight your world event by either putting you in the middle of the action or giving you a VIP vantage point. Also, on board, you’ll be entertained, educated, and engaged with unique shows, speakers, and activities inspired by the itinerary’s event.

Two of our favorite Signature sailings are right here in North America. The first involves sailing’s biggest Regatta to be held June 2017. For the first time in over 160 years, this premier event is being held in Bermuda, an island founded on a legacy of sailing. The drama will unfold in Bermuda’s Great Sound, a magnificent natural amphitheater set amid a spectacular backdrop of islands and beaches, with sailing teams and spectators from around the world.

Your Bermuda cruise with Celebrity will put you right in the middle of the action.

Celebrity’s 2017 Independence Day Cruise celebrates Canada’s 150th birthday in Halifax, and the U.S. 4th of July in Boston. Two exciting events on one vacation! If you’ve ever watched Boston’s July 4th celebration on television, you know how thrilling the fireworks are. Now you’ll enjoy them up close and personal, courtesy of Celebrity.

Other Signature Event Sailings include such experiences as Mardi Gras in New Orleans while on a Caribbean cruise, and the Carnival in Rio de Janeiro during a South America voyage. One British Isles cruise includes a visit to the stunning Edinburgh Castle to experience Scotland’s largest and most popular event, the Royal Edinburgh Military Tattoo. This is one of the world’s most spectacular visual and musical celebrations.

People choose CELEBRITY CRUISES for their beautiful accommodations, inspired menus created by a James Beard-featured chef, deluxe amenities and unsurpassed service. Now you have even one more reason: the addition of a Signature Event to your experience. Call Brentwood Travel today to learn more.

IT'S TIME TO VISIT ALASKA

If you haven't visited Alaska yet, don't let another season pass you by. If you have taken an Alaska cruise, consider an extended Alaska Land+Sea trip next summer.

On a typical Alaska cruise, you'll marvel at the breathtaking landscape. See up close the awesome centerpiece of every Alaska cruise: glaciers with avalanches of ice rushing down into the sea as they "calve" with a thunderous roar.

In Juneau take in a whale watching tour during which you may see the impressive humpback whale, plus other sea animals like seals and sea lions.

Did you know that you can explore a rainforest when you stop in Ketchikan? Or cross a lake in a Native American-style canoe as you learn about the history of Ketchikan and its Native American past?

Experience the river life of Skagway by panning for gold while learning about the early miners' lives, or go white-water rafting for a higher adventure.

Anchorage is a cosmopolitan city with spectacular mountain vistas. Visit one of its many art galleries and gift shops. Take a flight over glaciers, maybe even landing on top.

For the complete Alaska experience, a Land+Sea Journey combines your cruise with a multi-night land excursion. Visit Denali National Park, Glacier Bay National Park, Dawson City and Whitehorse, and enjoy a Tundra Wilderness Tour.

Nobody does Alaska better than HOLLAND AMERICA LINE. For nearly 70 years they've been taking people to Alaska on their elegant mid-sized ships with spacious decks and inspired programs that will make your Alaska experience unforgettable.

Have you heard the news? Viking, the company with the fantastic river cruises, is now cruising on the ocean! They have taken their small ship, destination-focused river cruise experience to the seas. People are already raving about the magnificent new Viking Star and Viking Sea, and Viking Sun will be out in early 2017.

These intimate new ships are designed with the understated elegance and contemporary comfort Viking is known for. Choose from five stateroom categories, all with private verandas and premium amenities that include king-size beds with luxury linens, large showers, luxury toiletries, heated bathroom floors and large interactive flat-screen LCD TVs with movies-on-demand. Each stateroom is open and airy, with a beautifully streamlined Scandinavian design that affords a sweeping view of your destination.

Viking puts the spotlight on fine dining, offering regional specialties and American classics.

OCEAN CRUISING REINVENTED

The Restaurant serves three full meals and the widest choice of culinary options. Or dine in the alternative restaurants, the World Café, The Chef's Table and Manfredi's Italian Restaurant – all outstanding culinary experiences.

With just 930 guests, Viking Ocean's elegant ships bring you closer to the world's cultures as you cruise to intriguing and often little-known ports that large ships just can't reach. You'll enjoy ample time ashore, many overnight stays, and an included excursion in each port of call. Fewer days at sea give you more time to immerse yourself in each destination.

The Culture Curriculum, Viking's exclusive onboard program, offers informative lectures on history and art, tastings of regional food and wines, and enriching Destination Performances featuring folkloric shows and musicians. All of the amenities on Viking's ships go just a step beyond the ordinary. For example, the Spa features a Snow Grotto, a sanctuary of gentle snowfall and chilled air!

VIKING OCEAN CRUISES gives you the small ship experience with big values. Included in your fare are all onboard meals – no additional charge for the reservation restaurants; a shore excursion in each port;
