Many years ago (in the '80s), I went on a Danube River cruise. I found the itinerary fantastic, but the ship, which was then latest and greatest, had small cabins and people smoked anywhere. I didn't heavily promote river cruising after that.

Fast forward 30 years... River cruises are now the hottest new form of travel all over the world, particularly in Europe. I have since been on six more river cruises, and I wish I could travel everywhere this way. The new ships are luxurious and gorgeous. They are geared to an American market in terms of comfort, language and interest.

Staterooms are well-designed with luxury features and beautiful bathrooms. The food on all the ships is very good to excellent and almost all include wine or beer with dinner...some even include all alcoholic beverages throughout your trip.

While on your cruise, touring is included each day, and you often have several choices. Most offer additional specialty tours that may involve cooking or wine. Many days these ships dock right in the towns along the river so you can just walk off and be in the heart of everything. If the town is a little further away, there is generally a shuttle provided to take you back and forth from the ship.

River cruises today appeal to many age groups, and are perfect for those who like active vacations, as most tours involve a fair amount of walking. However, there are also shore tours available for those who cannot maintain a faster pace. Some ships even carry bicycles on board. Shore tours are generally small groups of about 15 people.

River cruise choices seem endless. Cruise the Danube between Prague and Budapest with a stop in Vienna. Or travel the Rhine between Amsterdam and Basel, visiting Cologne, Rudesheim, the castles along the river and more. A Seine sailing is roundtrip Paris, and visits the Normandy Beaches and Giverney; while a cruise on the Rhone and Saone rivers between Lyon and Avignon feature Southern France's historical sites and wine country. Perhaps Portugal is on your list, or Dante's River Po in Italy. See tulip time in Holland with a stop in Bruges, Belgium. You can even sail to the Black Sea going through Bulgaria, Romania and other fascinating places. And with it all... you only have to pack and unpack once! Call us – we know river cruising better than anyone.

CELEBRITY'S COLORFUL SOUTHERN CARIBBEAN

We don't like to think of the chilly winter months ahead, but they'll be here before we know it. That's why now is the right time to plan for a Southern Caribbean cruise next year. Put yourself in the islands filled with sun and fun, excitement and lazy days, tropical sights and sounds.

The Southern Caribbean offers a stunning array of cultural diversity. Salsa dance in the Dominican Republic, learn about Dutch history in Curaçao, eat delicious French dishes in St. Barts and English fish and chips in Barbados. This region also offers many natural wonders, including a volcano, mountains, rain forests, beaches, waterfalls and rivers. No wonder it's one of the most popular cruise destinations!

One of the most serene islands in the southern region is Tortola, in the British Virgin Islands. Sailing, snorkeling and fishing are popular pastimes on this lovely isle bestowed with jagged mountain peaks, white sand beaches, turquoise bays and coves, and clusters of stately palm trees.

The scent of nutmeg, cloves, vanilla and cinnamon perfumes the air in sleepy Grenada, nicknamed the "Spice Island" for its fertile spice plantations. St. Georges, Grenada's 18th-century capital, is one of the prettiest in the West Indies, with a harbor surrounded by a pastel rainbow off dockside warehouses and the red-tiled roofs of shops and homes.

In contrast, Charlotte Amalie, St. Thomas bustles with activity, with duty-free shoppers looking for bargains and dining opportunities. The U.S. Virgin Islands have some of the most celebrated white-sand beaches in the West Indies, so naturally Megans Bay is a perfect escape for beach lovers.

In laid-back Puerto Limon, Costa Rica expect to find interesting architecture and colorful open-air market places. The main market in the center of town is the place to go to buy everything from wood-carved items to traditional souvenirs. Be sure to try the cashew wine, a specialty!

If there was ever a time to plan your Celebrity cruise, this is it! CELEBRITY CRUISES has introduced their Biggest Savings Offer ever – "Go Big, Go Better, Go Best!"

HAPPY 60TH ANNIVERSARY, DISNEYLAND!

In 1955 when Disneyland opened to the public, Walt Disney's dream of a "Happy Place...that would be a source of joy and inspiration to all the world" came true. Nearly 28,000 visitors came to see how a 160-acre orange grove had been transformed into a magical park for children of all ages.

In the first seven weeks Disneyland was open, one million guests visited, and by the end of the first year 3.8 million people had thrilled to the adventures the park offered. In the past 60 years, nearly 700 million have passed through Disneyland's gates! Now Disneyland Park (as it is officially known) is celebrating its Diamond Anniversary in a Big Way!

The new Paint The Night parade is bigger and brighter than any parade in the 60-year history of the Disneyland Resort. The night is literally painted with a colorful palette of more than one million glowing lights. With a wave of his white-gloved hand, Mickey Mouse conjures up spectacular Disney visions right before your eyes: fantastic floats, beloved Disney Characters and costumed performers travel down Main Street, U.S.A.

More than a fireworks spectacular, Disneyland® Forever is a street-to-sky immersive experience that will leave you in absolute awe! One minute you're standing on Main Street, U.S.A. and the next you're transported to the worlds of timeless Disney tales – soaring over London with Peter Pan, stampeding across Simba's Pride Lands, diving down under the sea with Nemo and friends or caught up in a swirling snow flurry right out of "Frozen!" The secret to this spectacle is its mesmerizing mix of breathtaking pyrotechnics and jaw-dropping visual effects.

Hosted by the one and only Mickey Mouse, World of Color: Celebrate! takes us on Walt's incredible journey of imagination – from his earliest creations, to his very first visions for The Happiest Place on Earth, to today's Disney magic – and beyond! It features soaring fountains, fire and laser effects, stirring music and towering mist screens that come alive with new and classic Disney animation.

The Diamond Anniversary of DISNEYLAND PARK reminds us if we never give up on our dreams...anything is possible!

SOUTHERN FRANCE – C'EST MAGNIFIQUE!

No area in Europe has grown in popularity like the rivers of Southern France, where you can cruise along the scenic Saône and Rhône rivers past beautiful countryside vistas. As you follow in the footsteps of Van Gogh, Cézanne and Gauguin, you'll explore the famed region of Burgundy and the colorful fields of Provence. This is the world of time-honored wine-making traditions and world-famous regional cuisine.

When you stop in Lyon, a UNESCO World Heritage Site, you'll want to walk through intriguing Vieux Lyon (Old Town), developed during the Renaissance.

It is a maze of patrician houses and narrow passageways, where you can shop and indulge in Lyonnaise cuisine.

The town of Avignon is nicknamed "City of Popes" because it was home to seven popes from 1309 to 1377. You'll be awed when you take a guided tour through the renowned Palace of the Popes, a rambling maze of Gothic architecture that served as papal residence, fortress, church and palace.

In the middle of the Côte d'Or region is Beaune, unofficial capital of the wine region.

This town is all about wine: making it, tasting it, selling it, but most of all, drinking it. Beaune is one of the best places in all of France for wine tasting. While there, you may want to visit the magnificent Hôtel-Dieu, a beautifully preserved hospice in the French Gothic style with a magnificent inner courtyard and colorful tiled roof.

Whether you are looking for a river cruise in France or in some other part of Europe, VIKING RIVER CRUISES is the way to go!

Their ships feature full-sized staterooms combined with full-size verandas. Much of the joy of travel is the discovery of new and exciting cuisine. On a Viking ship you'll feast on a variety of regional foods that give you a true flavor of each exciting place you visit.

VIKING RIVER CRUISES' unforgettable journeys are such a great travel value! Your fare covers meals, guided tours, lectures and cultural performances, wine, beer and soft drinks with lunch and dinner, as well as hotel accommodations on "cruisetour" itineraries.

THE BEAUTIFUL BRITISH ISLES

After the long chill of winter, Northern Europe bursts forth in a symphony of bright colors and endless activity. Visiting charming towns and villages, as well as the largest cities, a summer cruise in Northern Europe is an unforgettable experience. One fascinating PRINCESS CRUISES voyage circumnavigates the British Isles, including Ireland, Scotland and England, plus Paris, France as an added treat.

There is much to see in Dublin, including St. Patrick's Cathedral and Trinity College. Believe it or not, Dublin has over 1,000 pubs and several hundred types of beers! St. James's Gate Brewery, founded in 1759 by Arthur Guinness, is today the largest brewer of stout. The Guinness Storehouse is Ireland's number one visitor attraction and tells the story of the "black stuff." You'll also stop in Belfast, a graceful city of Victorian and Edwardian buildings that has become a cosmopolitan tourist destination. Explore this exuberant city, marvel at the Giant's Causeway or shop for superb Irish linens.

Each August, Edinburgh is the site of the stirring Military Tattoo, Scotland's most popular annual event. Against the backdrop of Edinburgh Castle, Tattoo is a matchless pageant showcasing the talents of musicians and performers from every corner of the globe, including pipers, gymnasts, singers, dancers, military bands, and an amazing motorcycle display team. The emphasis is very much on music, with the event expected to delight an international crowd with its rich variety.

PRINCESS CRUISES brings you the most popular destinations as well as less-frequented ports throughout Northern Europe, the British Isles and the Baltic, the Mediterranean, the Caribbean, Alaska, and exotic locations throughout the world. Delicious cuisine, outstanding service, and exciting entertainment are a few of the things setting Princess apart.

TULIPS & WINDMILLS - HISTORY & BEAUTY

What comes to mind when you think of the Netherlands and Belgium? Probably canals, windmills, tulips, and old-world treasures. The best of the Netherlands and Belgium is offered by UNIWORLD BOUTIQUE RIVER CRUISES on their "Tulips and Windmills" journey between Amsterdam and Antwerp. You can even add a pre- or post-cruise stay in Brussels.

You'll have plenty of time to see all the sights in Amsterdam since you have two overnights there. The palatial Rijksmuseum houses a variety of great art collections including the Dutch Masters Rembrandt and Vermeer, and 17th-century dolls' houses. The famous Van Gogh Museum contains the largest collection in the world of the Master's work. Of course, Anne Frank's House and Museum is on everyone's "must see" list.

Because your river ship docks in the heart of town, after a delicious dinner onboard you are able to get off and explore Amsterdam at night. Wind your way through the shops and coffeehouses to the infamous Red Light District, just to look of course! This area is actually in one of the prettiest parts of Amsterdam, surrounding the Old Church.

The charming and magical city of Bruges is great for walking, biking and riding in horse-drawn carriages. One of the most popular attractions in this medieval city is a canal trip. Along Steenstraat are elegant shops with high-fashion clothing, lace and souvenirs.

Stop at a pedestrian cafe and treat yourself to authentic traditional Belgian waffles, warm and sweet, topped with nearly anything you want.

Step back in time as you visit Kinderdijk, a cozy village that's home to 19 UNESCO-designated original windmills. Since 1740, these mills have been in operation with families living in each one. Watch as the "chief miller" scampers up the paddlewheels in his Dutch wooden shoes.

The Tulips & Windmills cruise, like all the voyages in the UNIWORLD BOUTIQUE RIVER CRUISE COLLECTION, are truly all-inclusive. Gratuities, scheduled airport transfers, all dining onboard and unlimited wines, beer, spirits, cocktails, specialty coffees and teas, soft drinks and mineral water, in-suite butler service, Internet and Wi-Fi access, shore excursions hosted by English-speaking local experts – all included! Call Brentwood Travel today to book your next Uniworld cruise.

FABULOUS FALMOUTH, JAMAICA

Situated on Jamaica's north coast is FALMOUTH, a historic town with an 18-century feel. During the late 18th and early 19th centuries, Falmouth was one of the busiest ports in Jamaica. As the shipping trade changed, Falmouth became a sleepy village and stayed that way until recently when its port was expanded to accommodate the large cruise ships visiting Jamaica.

Today, Falmouth is a perfect vacation spot since its central location between Montego Bay and Ocho Rios makes it easy to access Jamaica's most popular attractions.

If you are a thrill seeker, check out Dunn's River Falls where you can climb 600 feet up from the base of the falls – or enjoy a dip in one of the many small lagoons. At Mystic Mountain rainforest adventure park try a zip-line canopy tour, or swim with the dolphins at Dolphin Cove. For some “lazy adventure” ride on a 30-foot bamboo raft on the Martha Brae River, gliding gently through beautiful scenery.

Among Falmouth's historic Georgian sights is Good Hope Great House, a completely restored home from the 18th century, with a resident potter on site. Nearby is the Trading House, where you can purchase art, carvings and books. You can even take a horseback ride through two of the island's former sugar plantations. If possible, plan to have an elegant tea, lunch or dinner at the Great House.

If you're looking to sample authentic Jamaican food, Falmouth is the right place. At night, Club Nazz, with several stories of dining areas, including a breezy rooftop terrace, offers good views of the ship and town. You simply cannot leave Falmouth without sampling one of the more than 300 jerk recipes. From chicken to pork, shrimp to lobster, the jerk recipe is the town's signature fare!

For a great vacation in Falmouth – with or without kids – we recommend the all-inclusive ROYALTON WHITE SANDS RESORT, which features first-class dining venues, luxurious room amenities, unlimited food and drink, a splash pool, and first-class services.

ROYAL CARIBBEAN'S PERFECT 'HARMONY'

ROYAL CARIBBEAN CRUISE LINE has one rule: Anything is possible! They'll be proving that next year, when they add Harmony of the Seas to their groundbreaking Oasis class ships. Like her sister ships, Allure of the Seas and Oasis of the Seas, Harmony strives to offer you the most amazing collection of experiences, amenities and activities at sea.

From June through October 2016 Harmony of the Seas will welcome guests on a seven-night Western Mediterranean cruise. returning from the Crusades. It is piece of living history that has been designated as a UNESCO World Heritage Site.

The small town of Portofino, on the Italian Riviera, is loaded with expensive boutiques as well as souvenir shops and general stores. The Piazzetta by the harbor is lined with cafes where you can watch the yachts and sailboats go in and out. Sorrento, Italy, overlooking the Bay of Naples, offers great sea fishing, boat cruises and appetizing restaurants. It also is the birthplace of Limoncello liqueur, so be sure to pick some up for gifts.

OCEANIA CRUISES is known for offering outstanding value in upscale cruising that blends gracious elegance and casual living. # UNIQUELY AMERICAN RIVER CRUISES

Thinking about taking your next vacation here in the good old U.S.? On the other hand, you've heard such wonderful things about a river cruise. Well, we have the perfect way to do both!

Meet the only authentic overnight paddlewheel steamboat in America – the American Queen, part of the AMERICAN QUEEN STEAMBOAT COMPANY.

Although she is the largest riverboat ever built, with only 400 guests she feels much more like a small, historic boutique hotel – in fact, she is a member of Historic Hotels of America. While filled with today's modern amenities, her rooms and accommodations display all the opulence of the American Victorian era.

Discover the history and beauty of our country. Celebrate New Orleans in the fine restaurants and cafes of the French Quarter. Experience the Smithsonian-affiliated National Mississippi River Museum in Dubuque, Iowa. See the awesome displays at the National Quilt Museum in Paducah, Kentucky. In Louisville, spend a day filled with Civil War history, Churchill Downs and Bourbon distilleries...and so much more.

A Hop-On-Hop-Off motorcoach follows your river route by land, meeting you at each stop to take you on your guided shore excursions. You'll enjoy exclusive city tours in places like Memphis and Nashville, and have plenty of freedom to experience all of the destinations at your own pace.

American Queen offers a state-of-the-art gym and spa, 24-hour Front Porch Café, River Grill & Bar, and J.M. White Dining Saloon.

Included in your voyage on American Queen are a deluxe pre-cruise hotel stay and transfers to the boat; shore excursions in every port; wine and beer with dinner, plus bottled water, soft drinks, coffee and tea all day; specialty dining options with cuisine created by famed American chef Regina Charboneau.

American Queen cruises the upper and lower Mississippi, as well as the Ohio and Tennessee rivers. Her sister ship, American Empress, offers exciting voyages on the Columbia and Snake rivers in the Pacific Northwest.

HAWAII WITH NORWEGIAN CRUISE LINE

Ask a dozen people what comes to mind when you say "Vacation in Paradise," and probably 10 will answer "Hawaii!" (We can't imagine what the other two are thinking.) Each island in the Hawaiian chain has its own unique weather, plants, animals and sights.

Oahu, the island that attracts the most visitors, is home to Honolulu and the world-famous Waikiki Beach. From Diamond Head crater to Pearl Harbor, Iolani Palace to the Banzai Pipeline, Oahu offers unique attractions plus fine restaurants, shopping, golf courses, and nightlife.

It's 11,000 feet from the top of Haleakala Crater down to Maui's whale-filled seas – and you can experience them both in the same day on this compact island. Whether you're drawn to shopping, nightlife, art galleries, beaches, golf, or spas at world-class resorts, Maui will charm you.

The largest island, Hawaii (the Big Island) holds 11 of the world's 13 climactic zones – from sandy beaches to snowcapped mountains. See rainforests and Hawaii Tropical Botanical Garden, explore the calm and clear water, or view Kilauea, one of the world's most active volcanoes, in Volcanoes National Park.

Lush Kauai, where "South Pacific" was filmed, offers vibrant beauty. For the big-picture view of Waimea Canyon, the steep cliffs along Na Pali Coast, and Kauai's uninhabited beaches, take a narrated seaplane excursion.

Only NORWEGIAN CRUISE LINE lets you capture the pure spirit and soul of Hawaii, sailing to four islands in seven days on the beautiful Pride of America. From the moment you step into the Capitol Atrium, with its soaring Tiffany-glass dome and grand staircase, you'll know this is a spectacular cruise ship. Cruise America's paradise in style, with 14 restaurants and nine bars and lounges, excellent family accommodations, spacious suites and lots of balconies – perfect for whale watching, witnessing Kilauea Volcano or taking in the dramatic views of the Na Pali Coast.

At the entrance to Alaska’s Denali National Park is McKinley Chalet Resort, providing accommodations for guests on Holland America Line’s Land+Sea Journeys. This spectacular 60-acre property with its mountainous landscapes features 478 rooms, fine and casual dining, on-site raft departures and walking trails along the Nenana River.

The Chalet itself brings nature inside with timbered beams, native stone and soaring open spaces. The Nenana Grill features menus focusing on fresh local cuisine, including wild Alaska salmon. There’s a signature Alaska microbrew beer and culinary demonstrations from the resort’s chefs. Sounds just about perfect, but wait...there’s more!

The many colors of Cuba come to life through the eyes of the people. Cuban artists, musicians, architects, dancers, fisherman, farmers, and even baseball players. Once again, the doors to Cuba are open, and this island nation is waiting to be rediscovered. The GLOBUS family of brands has developed a variety of programs giving you the opportunity to be among the first American travelers in over 50 years to visit Cuba.

You’ll experience the colorful history and lively culture of the Cubans through one-on-one conversations with the locals, demonstrations and explorations. From its beautifully adorned churches and vintage cars to world-renowned cigars and a lush tropical climate, Cuba will transport you to a bygone era.

The special People-to-People educational exchange programs available with Globus

DISCOVER CUBA THROUGH ITS PEOPLE

are designed around daily interaction with local residents to truly immerse you in today’s Cuba. Typical activities include:

- Meet owners of the American Car Club to discuss why the streets are filled with 1950s classic cars and take a ride in one.
- Meet Cuban baseball players and discuss the history and importance of this favorite pastime.
- Visit Fidel and Raul Castro’s birthplace and boyhood home, and interact with local residents in this rural community.

Globus has several land programs that give you an eye-opening, “up close and personal” look at the real Cuba as it has been for so long. The tours differ by length and itinerary, so you can see only certain parts of Cuba or the entire island from coast to coast, and Globus never has more than 24 guests on any Cuba program. Your Cuban Tour Directors will be English-speaking local experts who are actually from the region through which you’re traveling.

From modern high-rises in the city center to small boutiques, Globus selects your hotels for comfort, amenities and proximity to the sites you’ll be visiting. Your dining experiences will be a highlight of this trip with meals at high-quality local restaurants to give you a real “taste” of the destination.
