Each year at spring break my family goes to Florida to visit my mom on her birthday. After a few days' visit, we head to a resort or cruise. I love all-inclusive resorts, especially with a family, because everything is paid for up front. Everyone, young and old, can eat or drink pretty much whatever and whenever they want with no extra charge. This year we decided to go to Club Med Sandpiper Bay – located on the St. Lucie River about 30 minutes from West Palm Beach. What a great decision!

The family ranged in age from 10 to grandparents, and there was something for everyone to do as a family and separately. My grandsons are learning to play golf, so that was the first thing we arranged. The fee is very nominal compared with many resorts. Club Med has an amazing golf facility, including a year-round program for school children who live in a dormitory environment and often receive golf scholarships for college. Their golf pro is a wonderful LPGA pro named Marie Claire. Each day she gave free group lessons to adults and children, and then we each took a private lesson as well.

Not a golfer? No problem. There's plenty else to do: an extensive tennis program for all levels, a great circus program where you can teach that inner you to be a great trapeze artist and more. How about beach volleyball, fitness and cardio programs, yoga and a wide variety of water sports? The list and choices of things to do were endless. My daughter took the boys out on a skidoo (motorized jet ski), which was an extra charge, but reasonable and so much fun. While the resort is on a river, it has a nice sand beach, and the calm waters are great for all water activities. Excursions are also offered to points of interest in the area for a nominal charge.

We were there in March and it was gorgeous every night, so we always found a table outdoors for dinner. The adults relaxed with a bottle of wine and hors d'oeuvres for a while, and then the rest of the family would join us for dinner. The food was plentiful and was constantly being refreshed at each food station. It is an easy way to feed a family, as there is no waiting to get what you want. There is also one specialty restaurant where you order off the menu and receive table service. There is no extra charge for this, but you must make reservations.

The resort has a great indoor and outdoor bar, and there are activities and parties for each age group, from infants to us grandparents. There are also serene adults-only areas such as the pool near our accommodations. The rooms are very spacious with

Are you a history buff? A romantic? A wine connoisseur? A nature lover? If you answered "yes" to any of these, you'll love a river cruise along the Rhine.

Uniworld River

Cruises believes that "the road best traveled is a river," and that's certainly true on this voyage.

As you cruise along the Rhine with Germany on one side and France on the other, you savor French joie de vivre (exuberant enjoyment of life) and German gemütlichkeit (warmth, friendliness). Discover Alsace, whose dual French and German heritage has given it fabulous food and a centuries-old wine-making tradition.

The centerpiece of this voyage is cruising along the breathtaking Upper Middle Rhine Valley with more than 40 magnificent castles along the banks. Towering above the water, many were once mighty fortresses guarding territory and trade routes. It's a sight you'll never forget!

A popular stop on this cruise is Rüdesheim and its famous Drosselgasse, a narrow alleyway lined with wine taverns, great little shops and oom-pah-pah music in the street.

Everyone visiting Rüdesheim raves about their visit to Siegfried's Mechanical Music Museum and its impressive collection of automated musical instruments, from delicate musical boxes to a gigantic piano-orchestron. It's a must-see.

Strasbourg is known as the "Crossroads of Europe." The heart of the old city, a UNESCO World Heritage Site, is crisscrossed with medieval canals inviting you to take a canal boat tour. If you prefer, take a walking tour through Old Town, stopping at a charming café for pastries and coffee.

In Cologne, you'll want to tour the city's most famous landmark, Cologne Cathedral – also a UNESCO World Heritage Site. The remains of the fabled Three Kings – the Magi – are believed to rest here, surrounded by stunning artwork.

The Castles on the Rhine cruise, like all the voyages in the Uniworld Boutique River Cruise Collection, are truly all-inclusive. Gratuities, scheduled airport transfers, unlimited beverages onboard, all meals in every onboard venue, Internet and Wi-Fi access, shore excursions hosted by English-speaking local experts, use of bicycles and Nordic walking sticks onshore – all included!

Call Brentwood Travel today to book your Uniworld cruise on the Rhine River.

Imagine 15 magical days through the heart of Europe on a Viking River Cruises Grand European Tour. Follow the route of emperors and kings on a magnificent journey along three great rivers, the Rhine, Main and Danube. This epic voyage presents the highlights of Holland, Germany, Austria, Slovakia and Hungary.

You'll begin and/or end (depending on departure date) in two of Europe's most fascinating cities: Budapest and Amsterdam. Did you know that Budapest combines two formerly separate cities, Buda and Pest, on opposite sides of the Danube? Buda has winding, narrow streets wending their way up into the hills. Houses hug the curb or the hillside in small neighborhoods with lots of greenery and trees, giving it a suburban feel. Across the bridge, Pest is the urban center of the city. The National Opera House, the basilica, the synagogue (one of the world's two largest), Central Market Hall, and Palace of the Arts are all here.

Amsterdam, capital of The Netherlands, is renowned for its museums, colorful gardens and markets, endless canals and over-abundance of bicycles. The Van Gogh Museum, National Museum, and Anne Frank House are high on a list of must-sees. A Hop-On-Hop-Off bus and many canal boat tours make sightseeing easy. Of course, you must enjoy Amsterdam's cafes and nightlife, including a walk through the infamous Red Light District!

In Vienna, marvel at the world-famous Opera House, perhaps even attend a concert. Stroll the cobblestone streets of Passau. Tour the fascinating network of windmills in Kinderdijk. In Bratislava, Slovakia, wonder at the enormous castle rising 300 feet above the Danube. And on, and on! Your entire journey is filled with one unique, historic, beautiful experience after another – so easily accessible because your ship pulls up right in the heart of the city or town. No hours-long bus rides ... your adventure begins the moment you step off the vessel!

Viking River Cruises' unforgettable journeys are such a great travel value! Your fare covers meals, guided tours, lectures and cultural performances, wine, beer and soft drinks with lunch and dinner, as well as hotel accommodations on "cruisetour" itineraries.

The consultants at Brentwood Travel are anxious to show you the advantages of a Viking river cruise, so give us a call today.

GET TO KNOW NORWAY

Wary of hearing about the same destinations over and over? Looking for somewhere different – interesting, colorful, historic, and definitely not a "been there, done that" destination? We have a suggestion that will surely pique your interest. Norway!

You may not know much about this wonderful country, so let us introduce you. One of the world's most beautiful countries, Norway has long been a popular cruising destination, famed for its stunning fjords. Formed during the last ice age's meltdown when the inland valleys carved by huge glaciers filled with seawater, fjords are undoubtedly Norway's top attractions – they shape the country's unique landscape and never fail to take your breath away.

Princess Cruises has three fabulous itineraries to Norway, all sailing roundtrip London, giving you a perfect opportunity to spend two or three days there before or after your cruise.

One stop will be the historic port of Bergen.

Founded in 1070, Bergen has witnessed Vikings setting sail on voyages of exploration. The town was an important part of the trading activities from the 14th to 16th centuries. While many fires, the last in 1955, have ravaged the beautiful wooden houses, its main structure has been preserved. This area is a UNESCO World Heritage Site.

Tromsø, called "the capital of the Arctic," is a lively and beautiful city packed with culture and history. Surrounded by mountains, fjords and islands, Tromsø has a rich neo-classical architectural heritage. The Tromsø Cable Car takes you up to Mount Storsteinen, 1,381 feet above the sea. From the deck you have a magnificent panoramic view over the surrounding islands.

Also on your Norway cruise is Trondheim, famous for its stunning cathedral. Wonderful riverside wharfs, wooden buildings, and the best student nightlife in Norway give beautiful, leafy Trondheim its charm. To the west is Alesund, a splendid Art Nouveau center. A memorable moment will be when you cross the Arctic Circle while cruising the Norwegian Sea. Surprise: it will be much warmer in the summer than you would expect!

IS A TRIP TO ALASKA ON YOUR LIST?

Hopefully so, because an Alaska cruise is a dream vacation. Alaska is America's last great true frontier – an unspoiled wilderness of glimmering glaciers, abundant forests, towering mountains, exotic wildlife, and waterfront communities. For an even richer Alaska experience, combine that cruise with travel to The Great Land's interior, creating what is known as a LAND+SEA.

Talk about sightseeing opportunities! From whale watching, wildlife and glacier tours to historical towns and gold mines to cultural experiences to pure Alaskan wilderness adventure, you'll find so much to experience and savor. From the Inside Passage to Fairbanks in the heart of the state, from the frigid waters of the Arctic Ocean to the tip of the Kenai Peninsula, you'll discover the best Alaska has to offer.

Alaska has adventure from the mild to the wild. Raft a world-class river, kayak along rugged coastlines, hike or bike a mountain trail – on your own or with an experienced guide. For more adventure, there are charter fishing trips, sightseeing cruises and flightseeing tours. The railroad can take you in comfort through some of the world's most spectacular scenery.

Alaska is rich in art, culture and history. There are so many ways to experience unique Native culture, including totem carving and local artisan handiwork, Native dancing and music, as well as historical museums and heritage centers.

The pristine wilderness of Alaska may be the last vestige of thriving populations of North American wildlife. Where else can you see polar bears, bald eagles, blue and humpbacked whales, gray wolves, grizzly bears, orcas, lynx, moose, and hundreds of other rare and endangered species in their original and undisturbed natural habitats?

To see some of the world's most breathtaking scenery, cruise Alaska's Inside Passage on an elegant mid-sized Holland America ship. Marvel at magnificent iceberg-calving glaciers and visit historic coastal towns filled with fun and history. A Holland America Line Land+Sea Journey completes your Alaska visit with must-see sights such as Denali and the Yukon.

WHAT'S HOT? MULTIGENERATIONAL CRUISING

We think traveling together is the best thing you can do for yourself and your family. Whether it's Mom, Dad and the kids; Grandma and Grandpa with the whole family or just the grandchildren; even aunts and uncles taking that favorite niece or nephew ... travel creates special bonds. Multigenerational vacations now represent half of all vacations taken by both grandparents and parents!

It isn't easy to find one vacation that pleases everyone. Some want to relax and enjoy the scenery. Others want to explore new places, trying new foods and customs. Yet others are more adventurous and athletic. One answer to this dilemma is a family cruise on Royal Caribbean Cruise Line.

Adults can unwind at the spa, cash in at the casino, or simply do nothing at all, while kids surf the FlowRider wave simulator or splash down in the H2O Zone Water Park. The Adventure Ocean program is divided into several age groups, ranging from 3 to 17 years old, each with age-appropriate activities, games, entertainment and special areas reserved just for them. With so many dining options, there's plenty for kids to choose from, including casual restaurants with fun kids' menus and Johnny Rockets for burgers and fries.

On a multigenerational vacation, grandparents want kids to have fun but learn something, too. So, shore excursions, whether to a chocolate or spice factory or on a visit to an historic place, are important components of the cruise. It's important for kids to see that people in other parts of the world don't live the way we do. The shore excursions offered by Royal Caribbean showcase the best and most interesting experiences of every destination on their sailings.

Because more intergenerational families are traveling together, Royal Caribbean offers plenty of accommodation options to choose from. There are staterooms that sleep three or four guests, while family suites and connecting staterooms are a great way to keep everyone together.

There's a reason some two million kids come aboard cruise ships each year ... they even bring parents and grandparents!

REGENT PRESENTS 'THE SMITHSONIAN COLLECTION'

When the consultants at Brentwood Travel assist with planning your cruise, a lot of attention is given to your preferences – especially your personal interests. When it comes to a vacation, for nearly six decades our motto has been “It’s all about the experience.”

Are there destinations that have always intrigued you? Would you be excited to sample new foods or customs? Are you fascinated by the history and cultures of other lands? Are you anxious to broaden your horizons and return home more enlightened? Most travelers answer “yes” to these questions, and Regent Seven Seas Cruises has been listening.

Regent and the Smithsonian Institution now bring you an extraordinary onboard experience to complement your unforgettable time ashore. The Smithsonian Collection by Smithsonian Journeys is an engaging enrichment program led by a wide range of specialists, from noted art historians to leading authors to former diplomats, who are eager to share their first-hand knowledge and expertise.

If that sounds a little dry, you’re in for a surprise. More than a lecture series, this program is completely interactive, where you will participate in insightful discussions with informative Q & A sessions, exchange ideas on a personal level in a social setting, and fully immerse yourself in the destination through select excursions.

Learn . . . Delve deeper into magnificent cities, quaint coastal towns and island paradises, as you learn from one of the many specialists.

Travel . . . Travel is the best way to expand your intellectual capacity, whether you are sampling a traditional dish for the first time in Hanoi or revisiting Rome’s Colosseum under the guidance of a regional expert.

Share . . . Aboard Regent Seven Seas Cruises, you have the opportunity to share these moments with like-minded travelers as you delight in an ambiance of camaraderie unlike anywhere else.

The lecturers onboard a Regent cruise provide insight and perspectives far beyond what you would read in the average guidebook. Many of them have firsthand knowledge of these locales, and most come

The Caribbean islands boast brilliant sunshine, white sand the consistency of confectioner’s sugar, and refreshingly warm waters. Yet, it’s only up close that each island shows its own unique qualities. In each port on a Caribbean cruise, you’ll find the fabrics of culture, cuisine, and history woven together in a colorful tapestry. And, there’s no shortage of adventure in the Caribbean! There is such a wide range of shore excursions that make your voyage personal and unforgettable; so we thought we’d share some of our favorites from Celebrity Cruises.

Craving beach time? While stopping in Phillipsburg, St. Maarten, relax on nearly two miles of white sand at beautiful Orient Beach. Sip a rum or fruit cocktail, lunch in the cool shade of the beach bar and restaurant, and swim in the sparkling water of the Caribbean’s “French Riviera.”

You’ll always remember your visit to The Bacardi Distillery in Cataño, just outside of San Juan, Puerto Rico. Watch as raw sugar cane is transformed into molasses and finally into rum. Sample the final product and discover exactly why San Juan is home to the best rum in the world.

Set out from Charlotte Amalie for a fabulous day of snorkeling and sailing. On the deserted island of Christmas Cove is an array of tropical fish and coral formations. Snorkel in the crystal clear waters and swim among sea turtles before heading to the unspoiled Honeymoon Beach for more fun in the sun and a delicious BBQ lunch.

Did you know that Grand Cayman was once a playground for plundering pirates? Discover this rich and storied past during this guided, sightseeing tour aboard the “Trolley Roger.” You’ll hear legendary tales about Blackbeard, Captain Morgan, and Sir Francis Drake – plus rumors of buried and sunken treasures. Along with your scenic drive through George Town, you’ll see the picturesque, historic homes of South Sound and visit the popular Smiths Cove beach.
